

Palliative and End-of-Life Care RIG
March 19, 2016
8:00-9:00

- I. Welcome and sign in (16 members present)
- II. Presiding: Masako Mayahara
- III. Chair 2016/2017: Dana Hansen
- IV. Chair elect 2016/2017: Christine Fortney
- V. Dr. Jeri Miller Chief of palliative branch at NINR, spoke about updates at NINR
 - a. Are the opportunities for funding for PhD students through NINR?
 - i. David Banks coordinates the F,T and K awards
- VI. New Member Welcome and introductions
- VII. New Investigator Grant Award: Dana Hansen
- VIII. Grant review thank you/member recognition
- IX. Communication improvements
 - a. Use of conference call number in the past for RIGS
 - b. List serve issues (availability of emails and names)
 - c. Use of LinkedIn is recommended
 - i. One page instruction available Masako will send out
 - d. Use of free venues to communicate
- X. Plan
 - a. Monthly newsletter to highlight members
 - b. Research gate to connect
- XI. 2018 Guaranteed symposium
 - a. Guaranteed-every 3 years
 - b. RIG has own space, RIG selects the abstracts
- XII. Awards-membership survey for awards
 - a. Best podium
 - b. Best Abstract
 - c. Best manuscript
 - d. Student award
- IV. Open Discussion
 - a. Mentorship of new investigators and students-RIG help make connection, Directory, with pictures, with phenomenon, availability for mentoring or consulting
 - b. At future meetings, feature short presentations (with slides) on current work
 - c. HPNA scholar available for new investigators
 - d. MGH supportive cancer workshop
 - e. NPCRC free grant review
 - f. NINR and palliative research group (180 members) works with PCRC
 - i. Investigator development funding center

- ii. Two and half day intensive workshops, trained by best in field (methodology, retention, etc). Need nurse scientists.
- iii. Free monthly webinars, coincide with PCRC webinars
- iv. Building compendium for tools for caregiving-Betty Ferrell
- v. Summer boot camps at NINR- looking for end of life science-specific to nurse science
- vi. Information on post doc information (including if international students are allowed)