Health Systems, Policy, and Informatics RIG

CALL FOR COMPETITIVE SYMPOSIUM PANELISTS

SYMPOSIUM TITLE: An Informatics Update for Nursing Research

DEADLINE TO SUBMIT ABSTRACTS via email: JULY 19, 2019 by 11:59pm EDT

The Health Systems, Policy, and Informatics RIG is pleased to sponsor a call for panelists for a proposed Competitive Symposium titled, “An Informatics Update for Nursing Research.” Advances in informatics and data science affect research practice for everyone. This critical update by a panel of experts will provide insights into recent advances that are important to researchers from novice to expert in all areas of nursing research. Following panel presentations, a question and answer or open discussion session will engage audience members. Key discussions may include, but are not limited to:

- Pragmatic recruitment of patients
- Studies using common data models
- Recent advances in data science

From July 2, 2019 – July 19, 2019, abstracts can be emailed to Dr. Clayton Shuman (clayshu@umich.edu) by the primary author. Presentation proposals are to be limited to 350 words and include the following: Title of your presentation and an overview of content to be addressed/covered including background and key learning points.

Proposals will be scored by each RIG’s Symposium Committee according to significance, innovation, and fit with the proposed theme. One (1) Competitive Symposium of the top 3-5 proposals will be submitted to the Program Planning Committee for a blind peer review. The primary author will be notified of their inclusion status for the submitted symposium by July 30, 2019 and, if included in the submitted symposium, of the final approval/acceptance status of the symposium by September 6, 2019.

PLEASE NOTE: Authors of abstracts which are not selected may submit to the General Call for Competitive Abstracts, which is open through October 21, 2019.
