

Name: Lynne Buchanan, PhD, APRN-BC

Current Title: Associate Professor and HRSA Grant
Project Director Telehealth Learning Suite

Affiliation: University of Nebraska Medical Center

Candidate for: MNRS Board Director-At-Large

Personal Statement:

I am interested in serving in this MNRS leadership role because I am dedicated to the overall mission and values of the organization. I have experiences in strategic planning and developing policy and procedures. I am currently a tenured associate professor at a large university. I have held university appointments as a specialty track coordinator, MSN program director, and co-director of a BSN to DNP program. I have been involved in MNRS since being a doctoral student at the University of Washington School of Nursing. My service in MNRS over the years has been as a section chair for substance abuse and addictions group (2003-2009 member and in 2006-7 chair). I was appointed to a research section advisory task force (2008-9). I am currently a member of the nursing education RIG. I have national certification in telehealth as a provider and educator and as a tobacco treatment specialist. I am a sub-group leader for a national telehealth tool kit experiential learning and clinical simulation sub-group. I worked with national telehealth experts to initiate the inaugural telehealth learning suite at my university, as PI and Director of an ANEW HRSA rural workforce grant which included supplemental telehealth funds.
